Knapheide Named Presenting Sponsor for Adams County Bicentennial

QUINCY, IL — The Adams County Bicentennial Commission is proud to announce Knapheide as the Presenting Sponsor for the upcoming Bicentennial celebrations, marking 200 years of Adams County's rich history and community spirit.

Founded in 1848 and headquartered in Quincy, IL, Knapheide has been an integral part of Adams County's economic and cultural landscape for over 176 years. Specializing in commercial vehicle solutions and renowned nationwide, Knapheide exemplifies Adams County's tradition of innovation and industry leadership.

"We are deeply honored to have Knapheide join us as the Presenting Sponsor for the Adams County Bicentennial," said Chuck Scholz, Chair of the Bicentennial Commission. "Their generous support is an integral part of celebrating 200 years of Adams County's history and achievements."

The check presentation ceremony will take place on Wednesday, June 26, at 3:00 PM at Knapheide's headquarters, located at 1848 Westphalia Strasse, Quincy, IL 62305. The event will highlight Knapheide's pivotal role in advancing Adams County's bicentennial celebration and their dedication to preserving its heritage.

"We believe in the importance of celebrating our community's past while looking forward to its future," remarked Bo Knapheide, President and CEO of Knapheide. "Being part of the Adams County Bicentennial reflects our deep roots to the community."

The Adams County Bicentennial celebrations will feature a year-long series of events and activities honoring the county's history, culture, and achievements. For more information on how to get involved or attend events, visit Adams County Bicentennial.
