FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celebrating Adams County's 200 Years: Quincy Recycle and Quincy Farm Products Step Up as Major Sponsors

QUINCY, IL — The Adams County Bicentennial Commission proudly announces Quincy Recycle and Quincy Farm Products as esteemed sponsors for the upcoming Bicentennial, celebrating 200 years of Adams County's rich heritage and community spirit.

Both Quincy Recycle and Quincy Farm Products exemplify the essence of Quincy's entrepreneurial spirit and commitment to sustainability and agriculture. Quincy Recycle, celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2024, has been a cornerstone in recycling solutions, while Quincy Farm Products, marking its 10th anniversary, has played a vital role in agricultural innovation.

“Adams County has a rich history and a bright future,” remarked Bryan Stokes, President of Quincy Recycle. “When you read the names of our businesses, it’s easy to see that Quincy is home, and we are proud of that. Quincy Recycle and Quincy Farm Products are celebrating our 50th and 10th anniversaries in 2024, and we are thrilled to celebrate Adams County’s 200th year in 2025.”

The check presentation ceremony will take place on Monday, July 8, at 11:30 AM at 535 Maine St., Second Floor, Quincy, IL 62301. This event will acknowledge the generous support of Quincy Recycle as the John Quincy Adams Sponsor and Quincy Farm Products as the Premier Sponsor for the Adams County Bicentennial.

"We are honored and thankful to have Quincy Recycle and Quincy Farm Products join us as sponsors for the Adams County Bicentennial," said Joi Cuartero Austin, Sr. Program Officer for Main Street America and member of the Executive Committee of the Bicentennial Commission. "Their commitment to our community’s heritage and future is exemplary, and their support will ensure a memorable celebration for all."

The Adams County Bicentennial celebrations will feature a diverse array of events and activities throughout 2025, showcasing the county’s cultural richness and historical significance. For more information on how to participate or attend events, visit Adams County Bicentennial.
