Adams County Bicentennial Announces Major Sponsorship

Adams County, IL — The Adams County Bicentennial Commission is pleased to announce a significant new sponsorship as part of its ongoing efforts to celebrate Adams County's 200th anniversary in 2025. First Bankers Trust Company N.A., a proud supporter of the community, will present a generous contribution of $10,000 to the Commission's fundraising efforts at an upcoming press conference.

The event will take place on Friday, January 10, 2025, starting at 10:00 AM at their 12th & Broadway location in Quincy, IL. Representatives from First Bankers Trust Company and the Adams County Bicentennial Commission will be present to answer questions from the media. A formal check presentation ceremony will also be held during the event. Members of the media and public are invited to attend the press conference to learn more about this exciting sponsorship and the Bicentennial Commission's plans for the 2025 celebration.

"First Bankers Trust Company is proud to support the Adams County Bicentennial celebration, honoring 200 years of shared history, resilience and growth," said Nathan Frese, Market President of First Bankers Trust Company N.A. "This celebration embodies the spirit of unity and progress that drives our company, and we are thrilled to be part of such a meaningful milestone for our community."

The contribution from First Bankers Trust & Company will play a vital role in supporting the wide array of events and initiatives planned for the Adams County Bicentennial celebration in 2025 and beyond. This milestone offers a unique opportunity to honor the county's rich history, celebrate its present achievements, and build excitement for its future.

"We are incredibly grateful to First Bankers Trust Company for their generous support of our Bicentennial celebration," said Pam Shaffer, Adams County Bicentennial Co-Chair. "Their contribution underscores their commitment to our community and will help make this once-in-a-lifetime celebration truly memorable."
