

Contact: Adams County 200 Exec. Committee
AdamsCo200@adamscountyil.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
Friday, May 23, 2025

Adams County Bicentennial Commission Announces Sale of Commemorative Coins

Adams County, IL — The Adams County Bicentennial Commission is proud to announce the release of our official Commemorative Coins in honor of the county’s 200th anniversary. These beautiful, gold-colored coins are now available for purchase and serve as a lasting keepsake of this historic milestone.

Each coin features a distinguished image of John Quincy Adams, the sixth President of the United States and our county’s namesake, on one side. The reverse showcases the official Adams County Bicentennial Logo along with the phrase “200 Years of Progress.” These coins commemorate not only our county’s rich history but also its continued legacy of growth and achievement. Commemorative Coins are $25 each and are available at the following Liberty Bank locations:

- Quincy – 4134 Broadway St.
- Liberty – 1002 N. Main St.
- Payson – 402 W. State St.
- Ursa (North Adams) – 114 N. Warsaw St.
- Camp Point (North Adams) – 213 W. Wood St.

Coins may also be purchased at the Adams County Courthouse, located at 507 Vermont St., Quincy. Checks should be made payable to: Community Foundation (Adams County Bicentennial).

Celebrate 200 years of Adams County with this meaningful memento. Supplies are limited—get yours today and own a piece of local history!

About Adams County Bicentennial: The Adams County Bicentennial celebrates 200 years of history, resilience, and community spirit in Adams County, Illinois in 2025. Through a diverse range of events and initiatives, the Bicentennial aims to honor the county’s heritage and engage residents and visitors alike in celebrating its contributions to the region.

For more info about Adams County Bicentennial visit our website at AdamsCo200.org. You may also contact the Adams County Bicentennial Committee at AdamsCo200@adamscountyil.gov.

###